LEAGUE PARK, CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 21.—Fandom here is wild over the great work of the Reds and another big week-day crowd was out to-day to witness the farewell battle with Hanlon's Trolley-Dodgers. The overhelming rout of the Brooklyns yesterday was the talk of the palace of the fans, and it was figured out that the Reds would nose Chicago out of the first division by the end of the week.

Win Mercer, of the Detroits, is still here, and it was rumored this morning that he had landed Frank Kitson and Jay Hughes, the two Superba pitchers for the American League.

Kitson admited the head received a swell offer and was thinking it over, but said he did not intend to do business until next spring. The indications are that he is lost to Brooklyn, as he is out for the money and Hanlon has refused to meet the offer of the Americans. The Michigan slab artist says he lost $1,200 by signing with Brooklyn last spring.
